Dedication

The 1981 Yearbook Staff of "The Highlighter" would like to dedicate this yearbook to the Atlanta children who have been recently murdered, and to all people who suffer because of senseless violence and hatred.

We would also like to acknowledge and thank Mr. Underwood for taking all of the activity and candid pictures, and Ms. Nemec for the excellent typing.

Enjoy this book and we hope that you carry with you many fond memories of Maxson School.

Sincerely,
Mr. R. Weigle

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Ernest Hobbie
Principal of Maxson Middle School

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1981:

The educational "train" that you have ridden from kindergarten through grade eight, will now depart for the high school station. Your accomplishments of the past are behind you and your energies should be devoted to the secondary program.

Please hear me!!! Select goals for yourselves and aim high! Success will come after hard work and determination.

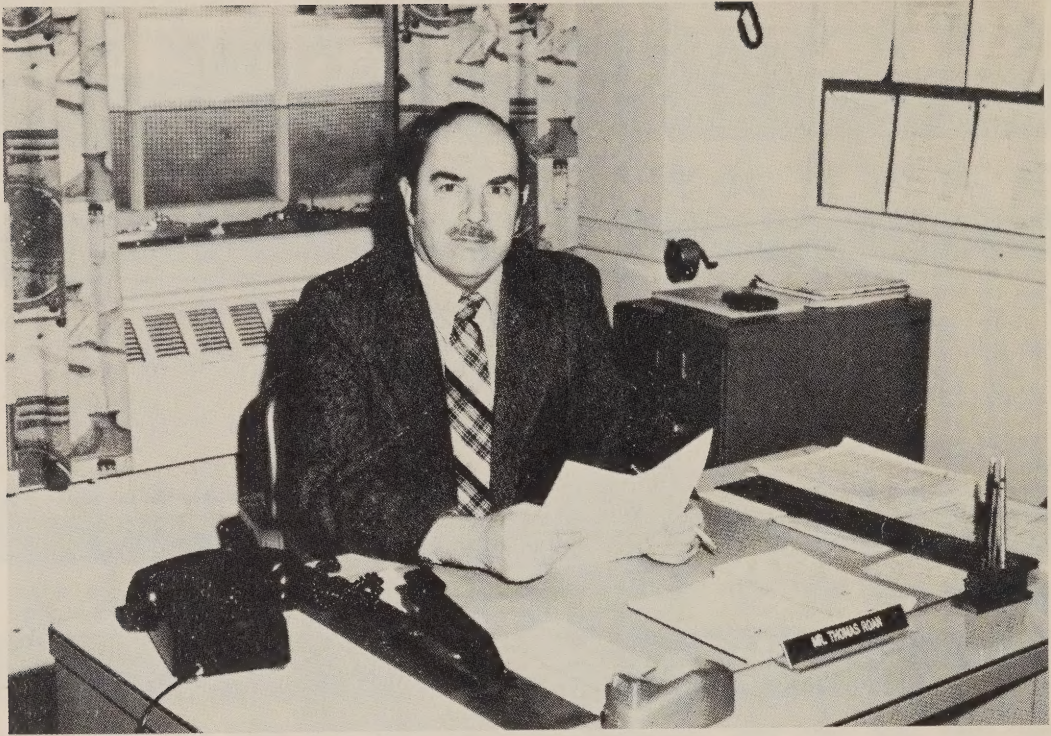

You are our leaders of the future. The success of our country depends on our young people. We have confidence in you and your ability to make America a great country for all people to live, grow and be happy.

You have the summer to think about getting on the next train in September. Prepare mentally to be ready for the challenge of the high school years.

We wish you success, happiness and good health in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

Ernest P. Hobbie

GRADUATES

Hall of Fame

This year's outstanding 8th grade students are:

*1st Row Dennis Sparrow, Arnold Bacarro, Guy Reynolds
2nd Row Jenifer Soriano, Sherette Malloy, Patty Engle*

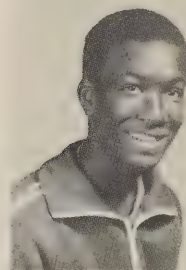

These six students have been chosen by their teachers because they represent all around excellence here at Maxson. Each student receives high grades, is involved in school activities, shows leadership, citizenship, good character, and a respect for his/her teachers and classmates.

Congratulations to the six of you and we here at Maxson School are sure that you will have very successful and happy futures.
